The 26th edition

The 26th edition of the International Chopin Piano Competition in ASIA will be held in the form of both a Hall Audition and a Video Audition. For the Hall Audition, we are planning to invite prominent professors and a string quartet from abroad, including Poland to conduct the judging. We hope that our competition would help you maintain your motivation and also accomplish your personal goals.

Purpose

The main purpose of this competition is to discover and encourage young promising talents. Through the grace and splendor that Chopin's music embraces, we also hope to contribute to build and strengthen a cultural bridge between Poland and Asian countries, and to promote artistic excellence in Japan and other Asian countries.

General Remarks for the 26th Edition

- 1) After passing Video Prescreening, both Hall Auditions and Video Auditions are to be held for the Final of the 26th edition. The competition schedule, result, and award of the Hall Audition are separated from those of the Video Audition. Each audition is judged by different jury members, although there may be some overlap. Participants may choose to take part in either one or both. The exceptions are Concerto Categories and Chopinist Concerto A Category, for which only a Hall Audition is held for the Final.
- 2) Admission to the Hall Audition will be opened to the general public. More details are to be announced at the official website or by email on a later date.
- 3) For the Video Audition, participants submit URL of their audition video linked to YouTube.
- 4) For the Hall Audition, members of the Japanese jury together with the international jury, adjudicate the competition.
- 5) For the Video Audition, members of the Japanese and international jury review the videos individually. Message from jury are to be sent to every participant. Messages can be written in English or Japanese. Please note that messages in Japanese may be sent as they are, without translation.
- 6) For both the Hall Auditions and the Video Auditions, a diploma will be sent to the participant's registered address after the results have been announced.
- 7) Those who enroll in Concerto Categories or Chopinist Concerto A Category, will perform along with a string quartet for the Final (for more details see p. 30).
- 8) Please be sure to read the Refund Rules on p. 7 for important information about refunding your entry fee and rescheduling your Audition.
- 9) The organizer does not guarantee and is not responsible for the overseas travel of each participant. Therefore, please make your own decision based on the social situation in your country and in Japan. At the time of travel, be sure to comply with the regulation of each country.

Refund Rules

Those who applied to the Hall Audition: Even if the Hall Audition is cancelled for some reasons, in principle, switching to a Video Audition nor signing up for another Hall Audition for a later date is not permitted. Therefore, please consider applying for both Hall Audition and Video Audition well in advance. However, if the competition is cancelled, the organizer may take measures such as changing the schedule, as the case may be.

Those who applied to the Video Audition: Switching to a Hall Audition is not permitted once the application has been completed.

The organizer refunds the entry fee for the relevant competition only if the competition is cancelled for some reasons. A refund is to be made to the credit card that the payer initially used to make the payment. However, the expenses of the system usage fee (4% of the entry fee) at the time of payment is borne by the participant and will not be refunded.

Please note that organizer will not compensate for any other expenses such as travel expenses other than the entry fee.

The entry fee that has been paid is not to be refunded under any circumstances, including the cancellation due to personal reasons, etc., except in the case of cancellation of the competition.

Video Recording Requirement

Instruments	Not only a grand piano but also an upright piano is acceptable. In principle, any piano equipped with 88 keys and either two or three pedals meet the requirements except for electronic pianos. Any other keyboard instruments including electric pianos are not approved.
Filming	The side view of the face, movement of the fingers, the keyboard, and the area of the music stand are to be captured from one fixed camera. The angle of view should be static without zooming nor panning and should not be changed at any time during the performance. It is not compulsory, but a shot of the whole body (from head to feet) is preferable. There should be an appropriate amount of lighting. If the video shows only the movement of the fingers and not the keyboard (e.g. from an angle directly beside the piano), points may be deducted or the video may be disqualified. The orientation of the video can be either portrait or landscape. When uploading your video, make sure that it is not upside-down or left-right flipped. Vertically filmed videos of up to 60 seconds with a smartphone will automatically become "YouTube Shorts", but that will not affect the judging process. Both for solo and two pianos, a shot from the right side of a participant is preferable, but if it is difficult, a shot from the left side of the participant is acceptable. For two pianos, the soloist should always sit closer to the camera than accompanist. The use of an external microphone is approved. However, that does not automatically improve the judging results. Artificial additions such as reverb (reverberation) are not permitted. Excessive and artificial reverb may result in the loss of points or disqualification. If there is an automatic volume adjusting function on the recording device, turn off the function to avoid clipping noise. If you are submitting more than one piece of music or a piece which consists of multiple movements, you may film each piece/movement separately. This can be applied to pieces with an "attacca" marking. For "Andante spianato and grande polonaise brillante", you may film the andante part and the polonaise part separately on different days. In any event, the videos should be recorded in the same room / hall with the same instrument and all the videos should be combined as one video before submission. Only one URL may be submitted per category. It is the responsibility of the participant to combine the videos into a single URL. Submitting multiple videos without combining them (i.e. automatic playback of multiple videos using playlists, submitting multiple URLs, etc.) may result in point deductions and/or disqualification. The video(s) must be recorded on or after July 1st 2024 and may not be deleted until the end of March 2025.
Editing	No editing will be allowed within a piece/movement. Any evidence of editing, or of audio that does not match the performance, may result in the loss of points or disqualification.

	Recording video and audio simultaneously on different equipment and matching them later does not constitute editing. The work to increase the volume of the entire video also does not fall under the category of editing. However if the video and audio appear to be out of sync, points may be deducted and/or the applicant may be disqualified from the competition. Any modifications for the purpose of correction, such as a replacement of a single note or partial volume adjustment, will not be accepted.
What to wear	Formal dress is not necessarily required.
Other	You can only submit the repertoire you registered at the time of application. If the repertoire registered at the time of application differs from the repertoire filmed, the points will be deducted or the video may be disqualified.
	Personally identifiable information should not be displayed or left visible anywhere on the video.
	Submit the video without a bow, greetings, any effect, or text data. The intervals before and after the performance should be as short as possible.
	By applying to the competition and submitting a video, both participants and owners of the videos are granting the organizer to save and publicly transmit the videos without limitation nor charge.

Uploading the video on YouTube

- 1) Audition video must be submitted in the form of URL linked to YouTube. No other online platform is accepted.
- 2) Publish the video as "unlisted" under the visibility section, and make sure to turn off the age restriction on YouTube so the organizer may access to the video.
- 3) Title the video as follows:
For the Prescreening: Participant's name and category.
For the Final: Participant's No., which will be sent by email no later than December 27th, 2024 (JST).

Submitting the URL link

- 1) If a participant does not submit the URL link to the organizer by the deadline, the registration is regarded as incomplete. This may result in disqualification from the competition.
- 2) Once the URL is submitted, the participant may not replace it with another URL.
- 3) The same repertoire must be presented for the Prescreening and the Final in every category. Although change of repertoire after prescreening is not allowed, only if you wish, you may record the video again for the Final. In either case, all participants must re-upload the video on YouTube, title the video to their Participant's No., and submit the new URL link to the organizer by email at education@imc-music.net between January 21st and 28th, 2025 at 12:00 (JST). Participants are required to re-upload their video on YouTube even if they wish to submit the same video both for the Prescreening and the Final. Participant's No. will be sent by email no later than December 27th, 2024 (JST).
- 4) Before submission, make sure to playback the video from the beginning to the end for double checking.

Prohibition of editing: If the video of the submitted performance is found to be edited video/sound within a piece/movement, points will be deducted or the participant may be disqualified from the competition. In addition, even after the results of the jury have been announced, if editing is discovered at a later date through technical analysis, etc., the points will be retroactively deducted or the participant may be disqualified from the competition, and the results of the jury may be changed.

Copyright: The copyright of the submitted performance video belongs to the performer/video creator, but by submitting the video (URL), the performer/video creator grants the organizer permission to exercise and use the rights of audio/visual recording, broadcast, performance, publication, distribution, etc. of the performance video, as well as the performer's portrait rights and other rights, without any restrictions or payment of royalties.

General Condition

- 1) For the Video Audition, members of the Japanese and international jury review the videos individually. If there are more entries than expected in a category, the category may be divided into several groups and each group may be judged by a different jury,
- 2) The result of the Final will be announced at the competition website. Details of the judging process, such as scores, will not be made public. The following will be announced:
 - the number of entries for each category
 - names of the jury members for each category
 - names and repertoire of the laureates
 - videos of laureates for the Video Audition only; the videos of top prize winner(s) may be presented for public viewing (--this matter remains to be confirmed). *The organizer will re-upload the video to the competition's YouTube account after download.
- 3) A diploma and non-cash prize will be sent to participant's registered address after the result announcement.
- 4) Any type of visual/audio recording is not allowed at events related to the competition, including the gala concerts, etc. without permission from the committee.
- 5) All rights related to audio/visual recording, broadcast, performing, publishing, and portrait, and all forms of distribution and sale of performances during the competition shall belong to the organizer.
- 6) Failure to comply with these rules may result in the loss of points or disqualification from the competition.
- 7) Each participant is responsible for bearing expenses of renting or purchasing equipment, instrument, or studio and internet charge which may be required upon application, video making, and video uploading.
- 8) Each participant is responsible for bearing travel and accommodation expenses for participating in competition.
- 9) Each participant is responsible to deal with obtaining health and accident insurance for themselves and the person concerned if necessary. Also obtain accident, fire, theft, breakage insurance for equipment, instrument, baggage, studio, etc. if necessary.
